CITY AND NEIGHBORHOOD.

Gay Heber M. Wells is the recipient of an invitation to deliver a Lincoln day ad-dress in Denver on the night of February 12th. The invitation is extended by A.

Under the auspices of the ladies and society of the First Congregational church. Miss Agatha Berkhoel, contraite, will give a recital and concert on February 12th, in the church, assisted by some of the best artists in the city.

Bradstreet's says of local conditions. "Wholesalers are busy with plans for an active spring campaign. Weather conditions portend an unusually good future. Retallers are closing out winter lines and placing only filling-in orders. Collections are slow."

M. II. Desky is now in Los Angeles, where he is rustleating for several weeks. From there he will go to Texas, Old Mexico and New Orleans, thence by boat to New York city and other Eastern markets to do the buying for his two stores in this city.

The young ladies of the Seventh ward will give a leap year party in the amusement hall next Friday evening, for which a large number of invitations have been issued. Mrs. H. B. Clawson, Jr., Mrs. R. M. Lambert, Mrs. D. Richardson and Mrs. J. Lloyd will be the chaperons.

Vera Lee, the 4-year-old daughter of Mr and Mrs. John Hagerman, died yesterday morning at the home of her parents, on Jefferson avenue, after a brief liness from gastritis. The funeral will be held this atternoon at 1 oclock, from the family residence, and will be private.

A petition for pardon has been filed with the secretary of the State Board of Par-dons by Wesley Thomas, convicted of burghary at Vernal last July and sen-tenced to four years in the State prison. A petition for parole has also been filed by John C. Wilkinson, sentenced to two years for forgery from this city last April.

John E. Austin, a director of the Utah Grazing company, writes from Heber requesting The Tribune to say for him that the J. E. Austin who was arrested here last week as a suspected hold-up is an entirely different man. It may be added that the suspect proved to be as harmless as a dove and was released the day after his arrest.

Warren Jackman, who was injured by a cave-in in the Laly West mine at Park City on Sunday evening was brought to the Holy Cross hospital yesterday. He was in a very critical condition last night and the chances for recovery are against him. Both heart and lungs were injured by the cave-in, as well as the head, but the injury to the head is not considered serious.

C. M. Wood, former manager of the New York Life Insurance company's general offices in Salt Lake, who is now occupying a similar position in Portland, Or, stopped off in the city yesterday on the way home from a business visit to New York city. Mr. Wood is reported as meeting with marked, though character-istic success in his new field of labor, of which he took charge last May.

Police Capt. Burbidge has just received from Henry Nowell a unique police club which Mr. Newell brought back upon his recent return from Ireland. The club is of Irish bog oak and on it are carved a bunch of shamrocks, a harp and a picture of Blarney castle. A heavy silver namelate bears the inscription, 'Captain J. B. Burbidge.' The new owner of the club says he will carry it only on St. Patrick's day.

"Billy" Cahoon, the six-year-old son of Mr and Mrs William F. Cahoon, died at the home of his parents early vesterday morning after a brief illness, the cause of le boy was very bright and was a great avorite with the men at the fire depart ment his father being a popular membe of the force. The funeral will be hel this afternoon at 3 o'clock from the fam ily residence. July North First West. fami-

The Covey investment company filed articles of incorporation in the office of the County Clerk yesterday. The corporation, which is organized and will have headquarters in this city, is capitalized at 180,000 divided into 1000 shares of stock of the par value of $150 cmch. The officers are as follows: Stephen M. Covey, president; Hyrum T. Covey, vice-president; Andrew A. Covey, secretary and treas

COL. HIGGINS DELAYED.

Leading Salvation Army Worker Unable to Reach Salt Lake for Her Lecture.

Mrs. Col. Higgins of the Salvation Army who is now en route to Salt Lake to give a lecture on the life and work of the late Consul Emma Booth-Tucker, was reported hours late at Pueblo on account of the Santa Re, and she cannot get here in time to give the lecture. It is there-fore called off indefinitely, and those who wish their money back can have it by applying to Capt. Wood.

Mrs. Higgins is chief secretary of the Salvation Army slum and rescue work, and has been out on an extended lecture tour. With her is Mrs. William Brewer, a noted soloist, and Adjutant Hansen Her husband is chief secretary of the Salvation Army in the United States.
